United States Senate
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Senator Wiley:

This is in further reference to your recent forwarding to me of correspondence you received from [] together with its attachments, which are returned to you herewith as you requested.

STAT

A review of the information and proposals submitted in this correspondence would indicate that before any further consideration could be given it by this Agency, it would be necessary to go far beyond the generalities disclosed in the proposals. If a more detailed outline of the project were made available, it might reveal possibilities of a more specialized character, but in its present state it offers little that could be utilized.

In replying to [] it would be appreciated if you indicated that the matter had been referred to "appropriate agencies of the Government", without specifically involving CIA.

Sincerely yours,
